Yes and the amount is a little over $197,000. I will send you the exact amount.

In case it comes up, is this reimbursement for past costs related to the response? And what was the amount?

Thanks!

Hi, Cinna.

Is this something I should mention when I talk to the county commissioners next week? If so, could you give me a little more background info?

Thanks!
Cynthia

It still has to go through the controller's office however it CDPHE expects the warrant to be issued in the next few business days and sent out certified. Sorry for the delay in response. Some folks had been out of the office and as you can imagine there were a lot of people for it to go through.
